INMAN'S ANCIENT FAITHS and MODERN: a Dissertation upon Worship, Legends, and Divinities. 1 vol. 8vo, xx and 478, Index xlv pp., cloth 11. New York, 1876
The boldness of Dr. Inman's opinions, and the variety and extent of his reading, make this one of the most remarkable books of our time. The large number of students who are now groping after truth in the history of Religions will find in "Ancient Faiths" ample food for their digestion, a style and treatment of the subject widely different from the unsteady ramblings of Godfrey Higgins, whose Anacalypsis has formed for many their first Revelation in the same direction of inquiry.

RODWELL'S KORAN, commonly called the Alcoran of Mohammed, rearranged and Translated into English, with Notes by J. M. RODWELL, M.A. 1 vol. demy 8vo, cloth, 15s. 1876
The Koran as arranged in the authentic Arabic MSS. is a sad jumble of the original composition of Mohammed, made some years after his death by order of Abu Bekr. Mr. Rodwell has rearranged all the Surahs chronologically, so as to form one perfect work, showing the growth and progression of the doctrines of the Prophet.

FINANCIAL OPINION:

A THURSDAY

ILLUSTRATED FINANCIAL, POLITICAL, LITERARY, AND FAMILY PAPER.

FINANCIAL OPINION, in addition to first-class original matter on all subjects of immediate interest, is devoted to the collection, analysis, and presentation of the most exhaustive information on Financial Matters, and gives the cream of the rival opinions contained in the leading Journals and City Articles, both British, Colonial, and Foreign. Men of business are rarely able to analyse carefully all the rival opinions on any particular security day by day and week by week, smothered as they are in the sea of general materials throughout all the papers. FINANCIAL OPINION, devoted among other purposes to this, undertakes to provide the man of business and the investor with such a digest and comparison, stripped of all fortuitous and irrelevant matter, and presented in a form intelligible to every man of common sense. The leading securities of the day are from time to time illustrated by charts of the fluctuations in price, in some cases for a series of years, and regularly for a series of two or three weeks.

Besides the Diagrams of Price Fluctuations, various Maps of the Seat of War are frequently given.

PARIS: ITS PARKS and its GARDENS.

Considered in relation to the Wants of other Cities and of Public and Private Gardens.

By W. ROBINSON, F.L.S.

8vo, cloth extra, 25s.

CONTENTS.

Bois de Boulogne—Parc Monceau—Garden of Plants—Parc des Buttes Chaumont—Louvre, Tuilleries, Elysée—Luxembourg—Vincennes—Squares—Avenues, Boulevards—Trees for Cities—Public Nurseries—Cemeteries—Ivy in Paris—Gardens of Versailles—Winter Gardens—Private Gardens—School of Horticulture—Cordon System of Fruit-growing—Paradise, Doucin, and Crab Stocks—Notes on Fruit Gardens—Peach Gardens—Fig Culture—Fruit Culture, How to Improve—Appliances—Market Gardens—Asparagus Culture—Salads in Paris—Vegetables of Paris Market—Mushroom Culture in Caves—Flower, Fruit, and Vegetable Markets, &c.

The Times.

"For a long time we have not read a more interesting or instructive book than this."

The Athenaeum.

"With reference to the especial subjects of which it treats, Paris has never before been so thoroughly laid open, not merely to visitors, but to Parisians, who of course know less about it as a whole than strangers."

The Saturday Review.

"A clearly and cleverly written work, thoroughly illustrated.....Mr. Robinson is not bitten by any Gallic mania, but retains the keen love of nature, which is the safest and truest instinct of the horticulturist. Such is the energy, enthusiasm, and persuasiveness, that we quite expect to hear of his chapter on Parisian underground mushroom culture (to which we must be content to refer our readers for a novel and genuine sensation) stimulating British enterprise to turn to account our used-up mines and caverns."

Court Circular.

"This is a book that we recommend not only to people about to visit Paris, but to owners of conservatories, vineries, fruit gardens, nursery gardens, &c., as it is full of information on every possible subject connected with plants, fruit, vegetables, and trees."

The Gardeners' Chronicle.

"In conclusion, we hardly know of a better mode of answering the author's inquiry of 'How are we to improve?' than by placing his book in the hands of every gardener in the kingdom; and where employers are liberal, or even worldly wise, doubtless this will be speedily done."

The Gardeners' Magazine.

"Paris is the best known of any city in the world, and has been described a thousand times, but this book contains quite a new and fresh revelation of its rural aspects and the results of its municipal economy. Its object is evidently to institute comparisons, and to establish conclusions with the strictest impartiality."

MACMILLAN & CO., BEDFORD STREET, STRAND, W.C.
